Meanwhile "Permanent Crisis" is the 6th release of The Silence Industry. The 6-song EP continues what has begun with the parent "The Teeth of Tomorrow". Complex guitars in gothic rock robe, combined with elaborate bass riffs, offer a thrilling feeling of angst. As the title "Permanent Crisis" reveals, it is a very pessimistic release. Though the desire and the yearning are present in every moment, as everyone awaits it from The Silence Industry. A more than adequately retrospect of modern Goth-Rock on the ruins of the information era.
